VIRGINIA JUVENILE JUSTICE ASSOCIATION

Advocating for court-involved children and the professionals who touch their lives since 1966.

31st VJJA Fall Juvenile Justice Institute

November 7-9, 2006 • Roanoke, Virginia

"When All the Stars Align"

Conference Theme

For years, the Virginia Juvenile Justice Association's Fall Institute has been the premier juvenile justice professional development event. The 31st Fall Juvenile Justice Institute, "When All the Stars Align: Partnering for Better Outcomes for Court-Involved Children", promises to follow that tradition and is an event not to be missed. Participants will hear from nationally recognized speakers in the areas of strength based approaches, adolescent development, cross-system collaboration and more. Download full agenda and registration materials at: www.VJJA.org.

Location & Lodging

The Wyndham Airport, 2801 Hershberger Rd NW, Roanoke, 24017 (540) 563-9300 will be the site of the event. A limited number of rooms are available at the conference rate $68 (< the govt rate), when making reservations prior to October 5. As always, room sharing is encouraged to maximize space and budgets.

Registration

Registration is underway and will continue through October 1. All conference participants must be pre-registered (no walk-ins). Registration includes awards luncheon on Thurs. Nov 8. Also, lunch may be pre-purchased (govt per diem - $12) for Wed. Nov 7.

Discounted Member Rates*

Full Conference (non member/not joining today): $125

*Current members are given priority. Members in good standing at the time of registration are eligible for discounted registration.
Membership dues may accompany registration.

Who Attends?

The event is expected to attract hundreds of professionals to include: judges, defense attorneys, prosecutors, juvenile justice administrators, probation officers, detention home staff, correctional officers, school resource officers, advocates, counselors, mentors, CSA Coordinators, educators & more.

Continuing Education Units

DJJ credit, CLEs and CEUs expected and/or pending.

Exhibits

Participants will have the opportunity to visit with more than 50 exhibitors. Expected exhibitors include: state and local government agencies, non-profits organizations, youth-serving organizations, institutions of higher learning, community-based treatment providers, group homes, treatment centers, curriculum developers, training companies and more.

Networking

In addition to formal learning opportunities, participants will be afforded multiple opportunities for relationship-building with other professionals working with court-involved children from across the state. VJJA President Beth Stinnett will host the annual President's Reception, the Blue Ridge & Southwest Districts will host our 4th Leadership Mixer, and attendees can cut a rug at the annual dance social.

About the Conference Sponsor

Founded in 1966, the Virginia Juvenile Justice Association is an organization of nearly 1200 professionals representing court services, the judiciary, detention homes, correctional facilities, group homes, indigent defense, social services, education, law enforcement and other groups with an interest in youth and family services. The organization is administered by an elected board and is committed to child advocacy and advancing the professional interests and competencies of its members.
